WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 21.

THE BEAR HUGGED THE THIEF.—An Italian who was traveling through the country about Los Angeles with a bear, which he had trained to wrestle and dance, stopped before a farmer's house late one afternoon, and after amusing the family with his performances obtained permission to stay all night. The bear was placed in the barn for safe-keeping. During the night the family was aroused by a terrible noise in the barn. Some one was screaming "Murder! Help!" and apparently engaged in a struggle for life. The farmer hastened to the spot, followed by the Italian and others of the house and found the tame bear with a man in his embrace, hugging him tightly, while the poor fellow struggled frantically to escape. The bear was muzzled, and could do the fellow no serious injury, though he was very uncomfortable situated. The man proved to be a dishonest butcher, who had come to the barn to steal a fine calf. In the darkness he had stumbled over the bear, who had seized him and held him fast. The Italian learning how matters stood, called out, "Hug him, Jack!" and the bear continued to hug him unmercifully until the farmer concluded that he had been sufficiently punished when he was released. The story soon spread abroad, and the butcher left the neighborhood to escape the ridicule to which it subjected him.—San Pedro (California) Clipper.

A MODEL TOWER OF SILENCE.—The Berlin Anthropological Museum has just received a present of a very valuable and interesting nature through the generosity of a Persian banker, Sir Jamsadj Jibibai, a model of one of the "towers of silence" in which the Parsees bury their dead. According to the religion of the Zoroastrians the three sacred elements, fire, earth, and water, are not allowed to be desecrated by dead bodies, which, accordingly, are given to birds of prey. For this purpose high round towers are built on the hills, which have a circumference of 300 feet. At the top of the tower is a platform sloping toward the center, where a cistern 150 feet deep is placed. The platform is divided into three equal parts, set apart for the bodies of men, women and children. As soon as the naked corpses have been placed on the platform, which are always hovering round, begin their ghastly meal, and before long only the bare bones are left. These are swept into the cistern by means of water, with which the platform is flushed, and after the bones are dissolved in the cistern the water passes through four subterranean canals and is then disinfected by means of a filter.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

The Gold Mining Company (location, Music Mountains, A. T.) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value. Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment. For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the
